6:30 P.M. 134 Boston Post Road Limited Site Plan Approval for protected Agricultural Use

The subject of the hearing will be the application of Farm Stand Acquisitions LLC for Site Plan Review pursuant to Sections 198-603.3 and 198-606.3 of the Town of Wayland Zoning Bylaw for real property located at 136 Boston Post Road (formerly Lee's Farm Stand) on land known as Map No. 29, Lot No. 048, respectively, containing approximately +/-4.6 acres the property is zoned Residence and Road Side Business. The project will include interior renovations to the existing farm stand structure, the construction of a small (1040 sf) accessory barnlike structure to be used for the storage of equipment, supplies, and material, and site amenities to improve the deteriorated parking and access, introduce low impact development stormwater management, and provide site landscaping. The property owners have created a nonprofit entity which will operate the farm stand. They have conducted outreach and have forged partnerships with entities such as the STEM Program with the Wayland schools. This project involves the cultivation and sale of flowers to introduce students to the operation of an agriculture enterprise ranging from cultivation to product sales. Other uses contemplated for the property include activities designed to market to and bring the public to a farm for farm related educational experience by displaying a combination of the farm setting and products of the farming operation, with the ultimate goal to encourage the purchase of agriculture products. Product displays, demonstrations, fundraising activities, and community events are also contemplated to enhance the agricultural visibility of the farm and local agriculture.
