

Massachusetts Commission on the Status of Women announce Unsung Heroines of 2018

(BOSTON STATE HOUSE) Senator Richard Ross presents the Unsung Heroine Award to Commissioner Mary Antes of the Wayland Housing Authority

An Unsung Heroine: Mary Antes of Wayland

The Unsung Heroines are women who don't make the news, but make the difference. They are the women who use their time, talent and enthusiasm to enrich the lives of others and make a difference in their neighborhoods, cities, and towns. They are mentors, volunteers, and innovators who do what needs to be done without expectations of recognition or gratitude. These women are the glue that keeps a community together and every community is better because of their contribution.

Mary Antes of Wayland was honored as a member of the Massachusetts Commission on the Status of Women's 2018 Class of Unsung Heroines. I recommended Ms. Antes for this recognition because of her outstanding contributions to the town of Wayland in a ceremony on Wednesday, June 20, 2018.

Following the ceremony, I met with Ms. Antes and presented her with an official citation from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Ms. Antes is a Selectmen and has done tremendous work helping the town.
